

Precis and Composition

Make a precis of the following "Multi-identities in Pakistani Society"

According to the writer in Pakistan A Hard Country, Anatol Lieven said that nothing can destroy the discipline and unity of Pakistani soldiers except the the moral and emotional pressure. A situation where the duty to protect state and duty of muslim clashed directly can destroy that unity. Similarly, the perceived subservience of Pakistani state to us demanded is mentioned as a factor that can affect morals within the armed forces. Even in the politics religion is involved. Pakistan society is full with multiple identities the only ~~difference~~ exception that is soldiers that are united with each other. The writer further said that by giving an example of Punjab that people are separated by class system they cannot be united.

 Even religion cannot unite them. In a nutshell, he said nothing can unite people even not a revolution.
