Question #2 — Locke

Introduction:

Humans by nature are born free. They by nature demand freedom and liberty. For such freedom and liberty they either can be a cave man again or do a social contract. Humans by nature are good, benevolent, kind and not selfish. But for their life and property protection and interest they become evil. As per Hobbes the nature of man is selfish and they need a Leviathan — sea monster to control, however the Locke was born in a peaceful age with no blood-shed, therefore advocated a establishment of Civil society, where people by choice surrender their liberty to a sovereign. The nature sovereign or public person in return guarantees the rights and security of its people.

Social Contract:

It's a contract between people and sovereign. People by choice surrender their liberty and freedom to a person. In return the guard their life and property i.e. provide security to people.

Human's Nature:

sovereign $\xrightarrow{\text{contract}}$ people
(guarantee) $\xleftarrow{\text{(guarding)}}$ (guarding)

Human by nature was free. They had freedom of choice, expression and even of resources. They distributed food equally. They are benevolent, kind and peaceful. But after the advent of Possession, the property and ownership concept they became wild.

Nature state:

The nature state was treating them equally. Every one was sovereign. It provided them with peace, food and was no discriminatory.

Absence of Nature laws:

When everything is right, who will rule/govern? There was no legislature for law making. No executive for executing and implementing laws. No judiciary for check.

With time the need for security is made humans do Social Contract. In order to lessen their responsibility. The wild life of cavemen for such security and freedom is not a choice.

John Locke:

He was an American philosopher born in peaceful age and golden era of American civilisatia civilization. The rivalry and civil wars of America were ended in mid 18th century.

He examined the society and gave a concept of establishment of Civil Society.

Civil society establishment :

People voluntarily surrenders their liberty and freedom for security to a sovereign.

Sovereign:

Sovereign is selected on the basis of Majority vote - democracy. He rules under the rule of law and is accountable to public.

Rule of law:

The rule of law is the common law, by common people. It's decided for the welfare of people by people. Their sovereign comes under rule of law.

Public Person: The sovereign is selected by public, by majority. They are brindled by the check of people, and rule of law made by person. They work for security of people.

Accountability:

In case of Hobbes, there was an autocratic monster who was above rule of law. In Locke's the sovereign is accountable and is governed by votes and people. He is accountable for his work for people and is governed by rule of law.

Bilateral agreement: In this contract the sovereign and people have a bilateral status. Both are responsible to each other.

The people are responsible for surrendering their liberty and freedom effectively and exercise their matters under rule of law.

Similarly, the sovereign is responsible to the people he governs by his actions that are brindled under rule of law.

Minorities discriminated:

In selection of sovereign there are 2 groups. Majority wins and the minorities are side-lined — "Might is right" and "Majority is authority is exercised".

Criticism :

- ① Benjamin Franklin: An American leader's quote on 100$ note says:
 "Those who surrender their liberty for security deserve none, they are left with neither liberty nor security"
- ② Selection of sovereign is the exploitation of minorities. The sovereign can exploit them.
- ③ A group exist that is neutral. The neutrals and minorities might be a majority in case of multiparty system. So basically it's the ruling of Minorities over majorities.
- ④ Human nature is never always kind and benevolent. Interest of groups and people defeat the principle of coexistence with peace.
- ⑤ Similarly, the rule of law might just serve the powerful elite. Knowledge is power — sometimes the knowledge and farsightedness lacks, leading to Laws for groups instead of people. — The recent 100's of Bills passed by Parliament.
- ⑥ Accountability and bilateral agreement may not work when there exist the nexus between interest of sovereign and certain group of people.

Conclusion: The majority might elect a bad person.

Upholding the real nature of humans i.e. peace and welfare. Accountability for everyone. Free and fair voting for nationstate interest. Saving and valuing the edifice of Rule of law. The Security and liberty of everyone is possible.

Question #4 — Ummah.

Introduction:

The muslims ruled the world by a simple principle of "Ummah". The muslim ummah saw its apex due its philosophy of brotherhood, Hadess: "Muslims are like 1 body, if 1 part is in pain the whole body suffers". The Ummah is led by Khalifa known for his values, Strong beliefs, welfare and moral practices. He is at an apex stage of Ultra Ego, which is attained by complete submission to will of Allah. Practicing Islam in true essence with its meaning of Peace. The concept of Ummah can be related to Ibne Khaldun Asabiya - having Strong Unity - based on kinship and blood, the concept of Millat by Allama Iqbal that is having no borders. The muslim at any corner of world are 1 body and brothers. Similarly the peaceful coexistence of welfare and consense among its people. The same ummah can be exercised in this modern world too - by uniting under a strong Islamic body that care for growth, security and prosperity of every muslim on Earth.

The Leader of Ummah - Al Ghazali's.

Philosophy: The ummah needs a supreme leader, who is responsible for every affair in an ummah. The social, moral, political, economical and many other systems are led by him.

Selection of Khalifa: The selection of Khalifa is done by consensus and transparency. There is no room for ill practices or favour. The interested candidates nominate them for the position and public judges their true character.

Qualities of Khalifa:

- (a) He must be Honest and trustworthy.
- (b) Upright character. (c) Known for his selflessness
- (d) Highly devoted for the welfare of people
- (e) Completely submitted to the will of Allah.
- (f) An example of high morality and good conduct.
- (g) Non-partisan and accountable to Allah
- (h) Fear of Allah and down to earth
- (i) Non-egoistic and simple (j) Always accessible.
- (k) Highest wisdom and Rationality.
- (l) Team player. (m) Who tries to teach to (level of Khudi - and ultra ego).

The Khalifa leads a Millat — having people trying to reach the ultimate position of ultra ego.

Millat — by Allama Iqbal.

Allama Iqbal was no a proponent of Democracy. He always craved for a Millat — Millat is an example of 1 body. as said by our prophet Muhammad (PBUH).

If any part has a problem, the whole body suffers. They coordinate for the welfare of each and every part to have a proper functioning. Its borderless — Not bounded by Territories, It's religious not secular.

The state and millat and government religion goes hand in hand. Sovereignty belongs to Allah. They respect their Khalifa.

And rule of law of Shariah and Quranic and sunnah principles. They fear last life.

and Day of Judgement. For that they try to uphold and take their self-ego-khudī to the level of highest submission. Where his self-ego combines with Allah's ego forming ultimate ego. A stage where Allah ask the people. Tell me what you want — As in case of Taif, Badar. Then no power on earth can stop the success of them in both worlds.

Asabiyah - Ibne Khaldun:

Asabiyah is the strong unity among people of ummat. Muslims share 2 things in common — same blood and family/kinship. They are the children of 1 Adam (AS), having same blood as are brothers to each other. They do every effort to unite and stay together. As soon as this Asabiyah is intact, no one can challenge the Ummah.

- These all elements combine and form the best form of Ummah.

Ummah the only solution for Muslim unity and prosperity — In this modern world.

- Current Situation: The muslims around the world are facing the worst ever homicide in the history. The west always crave for ideological enemy, and after the defeat of USSR, muslims are under the brunt of these hegemonic global powers. The muslim states are the playground for their modern weapons, the lab for their genocides.

The whole ummah is facing the worst ever hit to Neabiya by forces of Sectarianism, hybrid warfare, capitalist system and race for hegemony and resources made them wage war against each other as in case of Saudi and Iran. The millat is nowhere seen. Muslim are alienated by the conditions of their fellow muslim brothers in Kashmir, (Indian held), Rohingya, Russian camps, Syrian genocides, Palestine and in every corner. The west exploiting their ideology of Khilafat and labeled them terror groups using ideologies as ideology of Islam. The beautiful Millat disintegrated and Khalifat system badly ruined by the interests of few bad muslims. The complete Millat replaced by Nationstate system and Khilafat by exploitative democracy and Capitalism. The muslim states are trapped in debt trap, and are made to wage war against Allah in form of Interest system badly intermixed in state affairs. The heads being Exploitative and puppets are not trusted due to which the institute of Zakat is at dismay.

Conclusion & way forward: The only solution of for muslims and return to glory is by establishing a strong ummah , in form of platform like OIC . Making it strong enough by Neabiya principle and its heads as Khalifas . the accountability as in Islam and the transparency guaranteed by leaders in state affairs . That's how the ummah can work and stop world from exploitation

Question-6

Introduction:

The man is born with multiple rights. He is born with rights of Freedom, education, choice, selection, security, rule, do accountability, govern, and much more. The philosophers advocated multiple rights that are applicable in modern world. Justice right was proclaimed by Plato - similarly, right to education, right of defence, production and lead were advocated. Aristotle gave a right of self rule and practice state with territories, education and best form of government as per him. In social contract - Hobbes, Locke and Rousseau advocated rights of security in replacement of liberty and freedom which was later assured by law & by rule of law and accountability. Macaveal guaranteed and guided the Prince of his rights and ways to gain power. Foucault - Made people know the atrocities and value of Right of Knowledge. Masseque - Guaranteed Rights of legislatures, executives and judiciary by upholding the balance and separation of power. Similarly the essentialism and existentialism gave rights of to creators and people themselves for their hard work. Karl Marx assured rights of workers and lower class. In short, the rights are meant to be known and asked for from state and fellow beings.

Justice by Plato:

In a Greek style Plato idealises the conversation between philosophers and Socrates.

justice is telling truth, or giving everyone what is their due right or doing good with enemy to make him good. The Socrates and others discuss.

Human Justice: Dividing the people in :

- ① Producers/Artisans → Desire.
- ② Soldiers → Bravery/patriotism.
- ③ Philosophers/Leaders → Wisdom/Reason.
- Giving people what their due right as per capabilities — and nature
- No discrimination in education — Teaching them

Equally and its duty of state in form of public schools education. They do as per their nature what they like will feel freedom.

State by Aristotle:

He gave 9 rights of own territories and sovereign city states. Right to lead that area.

The right to equal distribution of resources.

- ↳ Division of resources equally.
- ↳ The right to education.
- ↳ Right of family and property — Practice natural right.
- ↳ Right of government with multiple ways leading from Autocracy to Democracy.
P.S. with Party as best form. Which is ensured by Middle Class.
- ↳ Right of separate electorate — of majority and minorities (Rulers and slaves)
- ↳ Accountability by them.

Social Contract: by Hobbes, Locke and Rousseau: The social contract guarantees the right of security to the people. The right to vote and self rule by people in case of Rousseau; by nature/sovereign in case of Locke and by a lawgiver - benevolent monster. These leaders ensure security and rights to the people under rule of law in case of Lockes. The accountability by people is ensured. The law of nature is sustained. The commanded people do well. The exercise freedom without hurting anyone else.

Prince Rights - Machiavelli - Father of modern Pol. Science. Guided Prince with his rights to rule and govern. The rights of means to meet his ends. The end for Prince is his state. For the welfare of state he is allowed to do anything he can do. The state rights that is prosperity for majority is ensured.

Right of Knowledge - Foucault. Knowledge is the real power. The right of knowledge is exercised. The people are governed by social order and truths that are man made. That are made by powerful to control. The right to know.
