

DR Asif Khan

Causes of unemployment in Pakistan
Date: _____

Topic sentence There are many causes of unemployment in Pakistan chief among which is the tremendous increase in the population.

Reason As, Pakistan is facing over population, there is a supply and demand mismatch.

Supporting part Due to over population huge number of applicants show up for limited number of seats.

Evidence According to a report 30,000 applicants filled Pakistan's biggest stadium as its capital police tried to hire 1600 new officers. (Saudah, Job seeker's fill stadium as capital police force tries to hire new officers, 2023)

Concluding sentence Hence, it is evident that overpopulation is a major cause of unemployment in Pakistan.

DR Asif Khan

Date: Effects of unemployment in Pakistan

Topic sentence: However, there are many effects of unemployment in Pakistan caused by overpopulation, the most significant among them is brain drain.

Reason: As there is limited opportunities for the educated, they are fleeing the country for a better future.

Supporting point: Not only unemployment, but high living cost in Pakistan is causing them to leave.

Evidence: According to a report 800,00 Pakistanis left for a greener pasture in 2023 (Zoya, Pakistan brain drain crisis, 2023).

Concluding sentence: That is why employment crisis in Pakistan is causing brain drain.

DR Asif Khan

Date: Remedies for unemployment in Pakistan.

Topic sentence

There are different remedies for the unemployed leaving Pakistan, the most significant among which is restoration of peace.

Reason

Improving law and order situation in Pakistan will cause ^{increased} foreign investments leading to job creation.

Supporting point

As foreign investors begin to invest in Pakistan, it will cause the employment of the local.

Evidence

For instance, Dubai a safe heaven for foreign investment has created many jobs there which is due to prevailing peace.

Concluding sentence

Hence, peace is important to avert the menace of unemployment in Pakistan.