

Abu: A God's Lover

Abu Ben Adhem woke up one night. His room was bright. A peaceful angel was writing in a golden book. Angel gently told that he is writing the names of those who love God. Abu's name was not in the list. He prayed to be among those who love God's followers. Next night, the angel appeared with the names of those who had been loved by God. Surprisingly, Abu was at first place in the list.
