Topic: Abu bin Adhem and Angel
One night a man named Abu Bin Adhem suddenly woke up from a deep dream and saw an angel in his room, who wrote something in a book of gold. He did not fight back and asked the angel that what he was writing. The angel replied in a very sweet manner that he was taking down the names of those who loved God. And again asked that is your name included or not. The angel said no then he said that his name was written on those who loves his fellowmen. The next day the angel came and showed Abu bin Adhem the names of those who had been blessed by the love of God and the angel's name was at the top of the list.
