Q.2

Analysis of Pakistan
by ~~Amir~~ book "Pakistan
A Hard Country"

The author of the book 'Pakistan A Hard country' Anatol Lieven says that Pakistani soldiers are the cause of discipline and unity in the country. This cannot be vanished without creating a strong adversary force filled with emotial tactics against them. According to ^{the} author, only the US invasion has the authority to do this as soldiers declared as rebels if they want to fight with them. If this army gets divided, even then it leads to civil war not any revolution which rules over the country.

Further, he says that the some regional parties is influencing its political importance. Since, every Pakistanis has ambiguous ~~identity~~^{recognition} with the exception of some rare one's. He has a meetup with a Lahori named Ali Hassan who himself clarifies him that Pakistanis can not gather on any point. (133)
