

God's Most Loved Man

Abu bin Adhem, once woke up at night in his bright room and saw a peaceful Angel. The angel told him that he was writing the names of those who loved God. Abu asked if his name was there too in the golden book, the angel replied in the negative. Abu requested the angel to write his name among those who love God's men. The angel disappeared and came back the next night to tell Abu that God loved him the most.
