3, Break a leg:

He broke the leg by solving the cube in 30 seconds.

Q7:

In the present anarchic period, everyone is busy working for themselves. No one cares about anyone. There is no existence of pure love and purity. There is full of morality. We are not only mean to human but our own country. If we think <sup>once</sup> there were love and happiness but now

the terrorism has replaced them. Still there is hope.
If we love Pakistan and try to diagnose our flaws
then they can be rectified.
We are the constructors of the future. We have to remove the difference of ethnicity, poverty and inferiority and superiority. We have to be united to develop the country.
Every individual of the country has to be united
to work for the country
as our existence depends upon Pakistan's existence.

Q.2: Directs
According to Arsalan Cheven in his book Pakistan a Held country:
The discipline and unity
of Pakistan can be destroyed
by moral and emotional pressure faced by soldiers

The army can be put in a crossroad either to defend Pakistan or to save their honour as Muslims. Like if the US invade part of Pakistan the army would not resist the invasion. Resultantly, the Islamist group would stand against US and the revolution would start. The second thing is the regional identity. The Pakistani people give vote as to the leader belongs to their own province. This shows the division of identities affect the political system as well.

As said by Ali Harsani, to bring revolution in the country, he would not get support of all Pakistanis. The people would not see him as Pakistani but as Punjabi based on province, nation, blood and as a personal enemy. He stated that people of Pakistan can't be united behind anything.

Passage: 470

Precis: 158

Title: Pakistanis Can not be united

Q3: Reading Comprehension:

Q3: What was his disagreement with Hitler?

The German army in was hopelessly cut off Guderian tried to convince Hitler that this position should be abandoned and the army transported across the Baltic Sea. Hitler disagreed. At last Guderian opposed Hitler with an openness unprecedented in this circle.

Q4: How was his relief from ## Command proved a blessing in disguise?

His relief from command proved a blessing in disguise. As it saved him from becoming involved in war crimes, as it had been the case with many of the German generals.

eg:

Guderian had initiative; he was leading from the front and he was a bully against peers that had happened to get into his way.

~~He was a bully against peers that had happened to get into his way.~~

~~He was a bully against peers that had happened to get into his way.~~

Q.1

Guderian did not care much about communication with his superiors. He was not a team player. He disobeyed orderless. His unreined initiative only worked as long as the Wehrmacht had the factor — surprise on its side and as long as it fought against inferior adversaries. This made him a talented and rebellious commander.

Q5:

If Guderian had not been sacked then he would be part of the war crimes.
