Translation

Everyone is concerned with himself in the age of inner self. None cares none and neither keeps true love nor sincerity. Morality is use in fall of civilization because we are selfish with ourselves, as well as, with our labels. Have we ever thought that terrorism has taken space of happiness in the country. But, fortunately, nothing is wasted completely. If we love Pakistan truly and identify our mistakes, we will purify our inner self. We are all assets of Pakistan so, we should curtail sectarianism, poverty, and difference of class. We should unite to glorify future of Pakistan. We may pray that we all unite and think of our country because we will be alive if Pakistan is alive.

Q2 Title: Pakistan: A hard country

According to Anatol Lieven in his book Pakistan A Hard Country, only morally and emotionally attack on Pakistani army can break its integration. Obviously, their loyalty to their commanders reflect in their complete surrender. Moreover, in case of US-invasion on Pakistani land, the army faces several challenges by Pakistani states influence in Washington talks. The narration declared by Pakistani army that army would mutiny due to US-troops in defending the land. Ultimately, risk of civil war would be increased by the Islamist rebellion unlikely the nationalist revolution in Iran. Regional nomination is deep rooted in politics and Pakistan seems to be in a vicious cycle of relationships except few of Islamist and soldiers. He further added statement of Ali Hassan that if revolution is led by him, it will be discouraged by people of other provinces followed by own province and own villages, too. Similarly, Islamic ideology will also be challenged by different religious sectarianism ideas. Thus, Pakistan is in deep complications.
