

Being Blessed by the love of God

A pious man observed an angel penning down something in a golden book. Asking the angel who had a calm demeanour as to what he was writing, he requested the angel and prayed that his name be included in the list of names of the people God loved too upon finding out that his name was not there. In a subsequent dream, the pious man saw that his name was the first on the list.

(69 words)