

30194

The Tale of Abu Ben Adhem

The pious Abu Ben Adhem awoke from a deep slumber in his moonlit chamber and saw an angel inscribing upon a golden book. Without fearing Abu asked the angel with serene composure about the writing's. The angel told Abu that it's a list of God devotee's, after inquiring about his name Abu came to know his name wasn't on the list. He asked for his love for humanity to be noted instead, and the angel noted before vanishing. The following night the angel returned with great light ~~revealing~~ a ~~list~~ revealing that Abu's name was at the top of list due to his selfless nature and love for humanity.