

Introduction Paragraph Structure (blank form)

Attention Grabber (Hook)	"Intellectual growth should commence at birth and cease only at death," (Albert Einstein). The statement refers to the importance of intellectual growth from cradle to the grave. It is through intellectual growth that one can understand the complexities of life in a simple way.
Connecting Sentence	(Connect your hook with the reflection of the outline) However, the education system of Pakistan
Reflection of the outline	neglects the importance of enhancing intellectual ability. It mainly relies on transactional model and age-old evaluation criteria. The curriculum does not support critical thinking, it rather promotes rote learning. Teachers are <sup>do</sup> not have adequate and modern training. Co-curricular activities are almost absent. In this situation of education system of Pakistan badly impacts the intellectual ability of the populace. It has a devastating impact on intellectual inquiry, curiosity and confidence of students. Along with p increasing unemployment rate, it also decreases the quality of research in Pakistan. Regardless of how much grave are the impacts, Pakistan can enhance intellectual ability by reforming the education system extensively. Investment in teachers's training programs, promotion of critical thinking, designing new curriculum and promotion of research culture are some reforms that are necessary.

Concluding Sentence/s

(Thesis Statement)

In a nutshell, there is little to no focus on enhancement of intellectual development in education system of Pakistan. Now, it is important to focus on intellectual growth to face the complex challenges of 21st Century. Despite numerous challenges, extensive reforms can transform ~~out~~ the education system to enhance intellectual development.