Title: "God loves Those who loves his Man"

Abu Ben Adham, the pious man saw an angle writing something in the scripture at night. After being inquired by Abu, she replied by saying, she is assigned to mention the names of holy man. He again asked her about his name's existence in the list; The angle disappeared after replying him that his name does not exist in it but his name was at the leading position in list when angle reappeared next night because he was the kindered member of humanity.
