

Paragraph #1: Causes of Unemployment in Pakistan.

Topic Sentence

There are a number of causes that contribute towards unemployment in Pakistan including; slow growth in economy, poorly developed labor markets, and high disparity or mismatch between supply and demand for accommodating workforce.

Reasoning or Explanation

But, out of all the mentioned causes, the shrinking state of economy proves to be the root cause for creating unemployment in the country.

Supporting Sentence

This is ~~because of~~ ~~the~~ because, the slow down in the economy gives rise to limited growth in the industrial sector.

Example

Pakistan Bureau of Statistics released large scale manufacturing (LSM) data and recorded a decline of 24.99%, as of March 2023 and this was the largest drop since May 2020, during the pandemic.

Concluding Sentence

Therefore, the slow growth in the industrial sector due to economic shrinkage, causes unemployment in the country.

Paragraph #2: Effects of Unemployment

Topic Sentence

This ^{state of} unemployment in Pakistan can seriously affect the social and mental wellbeing of the unemployed people, especially the youth.

Reasoning or Explanation

This is because people ~~are~~ ^{become} stressed and under the pressure of ^{financially} supporting their families.

Supporting Point

The youth and young men are more likely to indulge in unethical activities, due to high rate of unemployment.

Example

According to ^{the Youth Bulge} ~~the~~ theory by Fuller (1995) and Heinsohn (2003), high population especially of adult male leads to unrest, conflict, violence, war and terrorism.

Concluding Sentence

This points towards the fact that unemployment in Pakistan can lead to serious consequences.

Paragraph #3: Remedies of Unemployment

Topic Sentence

The serious effects and consequences of unemployment need special attention. ~~It is very~~

Reasoning or Explanation

It is very important to design policies and strategies that help to mitigate the serious effects and consequences of this problem.

~~Res~~ Supporting
Sentence - 1

It is important that the government spends more of the loans and funds on development projects which can help to create job opportunities in potential sectors.

Example

Such example is from the time of Great Depression in the US. The government directly employed millions of unemployed American in the Work Projects Administration (WPA). This helped them to bring unemployment rate from 20% to 9.9%. (Kristina Hooper, A case study in lowering ^{creating} unemployment, 2020). There is also potential for job opportunities in sectors of agriculture, sustainable production, organic farming, and renewable energy. (ILO, Pakistan Employment Fact Sheet, 2019)

Supporting
Point - 2

Pakistan has almost 4 million youth entering the working population so it is important to promote an entrepreneurial mindset.

Example

Pakistan's current growth levels are insufficient to create a good number of productive jobs so entrepreneurs are key to business generation and innovation. (UNICEF, Investing in Pakistan's Young People, 2020)

Concluding
Sentence.

Hence, the remedies of unemployment need to be taken seriously in order to overcome the damages.