Precis Writing

Title:

Importance of Fellow Beings

Precis:

One night, Abu Ben Adhem woke up, saw an angel writing something and asked what he was writing. When the angel told him about writing the names of those who love Allah and Abu's name was not among them, he asked the angel to note his name as the one who loves his fellowmen. Next night, when the angel came and showed him the list having names of beloveds of Allah, Abu's <sup>name</sup> was at the top.
