

Neglect of enhancing intellectual ability in our education system

Attention Grabber

An Orchestra, where the Conductor waves his stick to orchestrate the music already within the musicians hearts. The Conductor provides them, with true direction to their inner self. And a Circus, where the trainer uses his stick to make a lion do stunts to serve the interest of audience. It takes an orchestra to play a symphony.

Connecting sentence

unfortunately, we lack the true direction in our education system, which neglects to orchestrate our inner skills.

Reflection of outline

This is due to ^{the} lack of legislation to modernize our old-fashioned traditional education system. Unavailability of funds is a hindrance to digitalize resources for modernizing our education system.

This leads to the promotion of cramming culture, and the learners hesitate to engage in learning activities. Moreover, negative effects on mental capabilities result in higher failure rates. ^{Resultantly} The sufferers have to survive without the lifelong social and academic skills.

That is why, to cope with this situation our education system needs ^{certain measures like} private partnership schools and to improve teachers training institutes. The accountability of education system is ^{also} inevitable.

Thesis statement

The role of intellectual ability has been neglected in our education System. This is failing the system to cultivate cognitive skills including critical thinking among the learners. Appropriate measures ^{can be taken} to enhance intellectual ability in our education system, that may help the situation.