

Test # 2.

Q1. Identify types of essays....

1. Expository ESSAY - The essay would aim to explain phenomenon of female harassment, its preventions, and societal issues. There is no argument for a particular stance.
2. Argumentative Essay - The essay would present arguments for or against Pakistan's efficiency in dealing with hybrid warfare.
3. Abstract Essay - This topic focuses on the abstract idea and is an open-ended essay.
4. Expository ESSAY - This topic focuses on associated challenges with responsibly managing Artificial Intelligence and its impact on mankind.
5. Argumentative ESSAY - This essay focuses on taking one stance and giving arguments against the other.
6. Argumentative Essay - This topic asks to either support or refute the idea.

7. Abstract ESSAY - This topic focuses on the abstract idea and every person can have their own and different opinion in this essay.

8. Argumentative ESSAY - The topic asks to take a stance on whether loyalty to the nation and loyalty to the state are the same.

9. Expository ESSAY - This topic focuses on more into an informative examination that covers commercialization of education and challenges to intellectual development.

10. Argumentative Essay-

10. Expository ESSAY - This topic focuses on ~~mild~~ military adventures and they as a threat to the environment. The topic doesn't ask to take a particular stance.

Q.2. Section 1 (Expository)

Topic: Globalization and Climate change are interrelated

Outline.

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

2. Crunch paragraph
3. Globalization and its implications on climate change
  - a. Increased international trade and transportation
  - b. Industrialization and global supply chains leading to increase in greenhouse gas emissions and carbon footprint
  - c. Global financial flows influencing energy policies and environmental regulations
  - d. Technological advancements affecting environmental practices
  - e. Priorities given to geo-political interests rather than climate change
- f. Rise of urban areas leading to increased energy consumption
- g. majorities of the factories are in 3rd world countries due to poor that lack basic environmental policies.

4. Climate change and its influence on Globalization

- a. Changing weather patterns and its impact on agricultural productivity
- b. Rising sea levels are becoming a threat to coastal lands and economies
- c. Disruption in ~~the~~ global supply chains due to climate-~~change~~ related disasters
- d. Growth of renewable energy industries
- e. Humanitarian crisis due to climate change
- f. Spread of diseases and health challenges due to climate change
- g. Free Impact on trade policies due to climate change

5. Way Forward

- a. Encouraging sustainable business practices
- b. Investing in Climate-friendly ~~infras~~ infrastructure
- c. Prioritizing global climate agreements

6. Conclusion

Section 2 (Argumentative)

Topic : Is commercialization the biggest ill of media?

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. Commercialization is the biggest ill of media (Thesis)

- a. Commercialization leads to compromises the impartiality of media, leading to biased reporting
- b. More focus is diverted towards sensational stories rather than informative content
- c. Media can easily be controlled by wealthy individuals or politicians
- d. ~~Media~~ Media is more focused on making profits
- e. Media diversity is limited, people are not recruited on merit-based.

4. ~~If would be wrong~~ Commercialization is NOT the biggest ill of media (Anti-Thesis)

- a. Commercial media is more independent than state-owned media
- b. Media produces only that content that aligns with public interests and preferences

- c. Journalists in commercial media outlets get high salaries, hence not everyone ~~can't~~ are controlled by rich individuals
- d. With the profits, they invest in modern technologies and infrastructure, enhancing access to information services
- e. Commercial media generates more employment opportunities rather than state-owned media

5. Regardless of the benefits of commercialization it still is the biggest ill of media (Synthesis)

- a. Commercial media is more independent that's why journalists focus more on their personal opinions and interests rather than informative content
- b. There should be a balance over public interests and responsible journalism, rather than focusing just on sensational content
- c. No salary is 'enough' salary.
- d. With all the investments by commercial media in information services, it still considers as a very biased media in Pakistan
- e. Generating more employment opportunities is different from providing equal employment opportunities to everyone.

6. Conclusion