One night a holy man was woken by an angel who was writing in a gold book. The man asked what the angel was writing, and was told that the names of people who loved God were being written. Upon inquiring further, the man found out that his name was not on the list, and asked the angel to write it, after which the angel wrote and disappeared. The next night, the man was awoken by the same angel who showed him the names of those who were blessed by God, and had his name at the top.
