QNo: 7 In this era of selfishness

In today's world of interest based, people everyone is looking for their interests. No one is ready to take care of anyone, because no one has the love and sincerity for others. The value of character is diminishing. We not only find our interests in humans but our country also. Did we ever thought that once this country was filled with love but now it has been replaced with terrorism. But still we have time to correct the things if we start truly loving our country and look inside ourselves we can end many weakness in ourselves. We are the future of tomorrow we should end our nationalistic views, superior and inferior, and work for common cause that is prosperity of the country. Let's pray that people of this country should unite and start thinking for the prosperity of the country because we will be ~~alive only~~ survive only if Pakistan survives.
