Neglect of enhancing intellectual ability in our education system.

Date: _____

Attention grabber

"Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of fire" (William Butler)

This means that education is not merely gaining knowledge but, it is also igniting one's desire and ability for intellectual growth.

No relation to neglect, in Hook 2, Connecting sentence

Pakistan's education system has little room for intellectual growth.

Reflection of outline

This is due to our lack of research culture and outdated curriculum. Our government is paying no attention towards the education sector. Education system in Pakistan does not promote critical thinking and has un-trained teachers.

being

The situation is further exacerbated by exams which are wholly based on memorization which hampers intellectual growth. As a result of these factors Pakistan is producing unskilled graduates which have no research capabilities leading them towards unemployment.

Moreover, these graduates are not innovative causing reliance on foreign technologies. → Continue here

However, intellectual ability in our education system can be enhanced by updating the national curriculum and proper training of the teachers. Similarly schools should promote research and critical thinking. Most importantly government should make policies to enhance the intellectual ability in the youth.
