In this era, everyone focus on themselves nobody cares anyone else. They have no love and sympathy. We are not only show selfishness with others but also with own country. However thought that where have we thought in this land where once melodies of love played, now this is symptom of terrorism is here. But Nothing is irreparable - if we truly love Pakistan we can overcome our flaws.
We are the architects of tomorrow. We need to remove the difference of minorities poverty and richness and ^{at} upper and lower class. We must unite one to built the future of Pakistan. Let's pray that every member of the country start thinking about Pakistan.
As long as Pakistan lives, so do we all.
