A Holy man named Abu ben Adhem woke up and saw an angle in his room writing something in a gold book. The peaceful face of angel made Abu ask him about what he was writing to which the angle replied with calmness that he is writing names of those who love God. Abu asked if his name was on the list, the angle replied No. Abu asked angle to write his name as one who love his fellowmen. Angle wrote and vanished. Angle came back the next night and showed Abu the names of those who had been blessed with God's love and Abu's name was on top.
