

Pakistan a divided nation

DisUnited nation

2#2. The author says that moral and emotional pressures can break the unity of Pakistani soldiers. Create such a situation where as a muslim they disobey their commanders. Already the relation of Pakistan with Washington caused severe problems of armed force. The author said that they have been sold by soldiers of all arms. That they faced open aggression on the ground by the US troops. This situation leads towards revolutions. Anatol Lieven further added that regional identity influence the politics of Pakistan. There are few people who believe in single identity i.e. some Islamist and soldiers.
