

QUESTION NO: 09

Divided Pakistan: unfit for revolution

~~United We Stand, Divided We Fall~~

Anatol Lieven, in his book 'Pakistan A Hard Country', states an integral concept of dismembering the discipline of soldiers through powerful external pressure that levies them to choose path in case of American invasion. With incur of mutiny, it would lead to collapse of state with imminence of civil war engulfing the country. Similarly, an increased upsurge of party based politics prominently displays the layered stratification of Pakistani society where there is presence of faction in every domain, with exclusion of some soldiers and Islamists, but even they are affected by grouping as well. Ali Hassan, a lahori executive once made a remark to author that if he placed himself in a position to rule, many would decline on the basis of provincial differentiation, then comes the ethnic difference and then personal conflict. Similarly, the preaching of Islamic revolution faces a hurdle of sectarianism. Hence, Pakistanis fail to exhibit the unity required for revolution as they fail to unite for anything at all.

Word count:

Number of words in original paragraph: 479

Number of words written in precis: 164

Suggested titles:

- (i) National Integration At Stake of Faction.
- (ii) Disunity leading to upheaval of State.

Question no:03

Plz answer the question

Question no:01

Cruderian was a talented and rebellious commander as he had taken the initiative of leading from the front and used to pull down anyone who used to get in his way. This is empirically displayed by the his command of motorised XIX Army Corps which managed an early win while cutting off French and British forces. Subsequently, his rebellious command is displayed through a clash of ideas regarding transportation of army across the Baltic Sea. Hence, the incidents of win and rebellious decisions substantiate his ability to command.

Question no:02

There were many offensive tactics used by Guderian during wars. He was the one who introduced the use of tanks in Army as an operative weapon. He favoured the strategic use of Panzer forces as he planned to transport all supporting elements of panzer forces ^{on track} and the supply services, were incorporated with the fighting troops, ensuring the supply for three to five days. Along with this he had limited subservience displayed towards his superiors. Therefore, there were numerous tactics displayed by Guderian during war

Question no:03

Guderian and Hitler locked horns with each other when German troops were encircled at Kustrin and General Busse failed to rescue them. With diminishing supply and complete cut off troops, different strategies were presented by Guderian and Hitler. Guderian suggested Hitler to retreat on his position and transport army across the Baltic sea. This option was against the regime of Hitler. With open display of polarised decisions, Guderian was seen in a prominent disagreement with Hitler.

Question no:04

Due to adamant stance of differentiation presented by Guderian, he was relinquished from his charges by Hitler. His relief from command proved to be a blessing in disguise as it ~~see~~ saved him from carrying out any command from Hitler.

under the shadow of Hitler and from becoming a part of war crimes. This pattern of heinous acts proved to be quite frequently displayed by the German generals. Hence, an early discharge from his command proved to be a blessing in disguise.

U r quite appropriate in presenting Ur ideas

10

Question no:05

If Guederian had not been sacked early on the basis of disagreement with Hitler, he would have been part of many war crimes. However, his disposal from charge proved to be a point in favour that protected his fate from becoming similar to many other German generals that were part of war crimes. Hence, if he had not been sacked, he would have marked his presence in war crimes.

Question no:04 (Part A)

- a) He is an actor, athlete and a debater.
- b) A ten-foot long snake was killed by the villagers.

- c) There is no one but a secretary and a executive left.
- g) Summons were issued regarding speeding offence
- h) Many of the girls were appearing in the examination.

Question no:04 (Part B)

- 1) He entered into a contract.
- 2) Dr Hassan Ali Gondal is fond of reading.
- 3) Sir Majid is addicted to smoking.
- 4) We should go about our parent's desire.
- 5) The judge went through the matter.

Question no:05 (Part A)

Chair of the Governors. Although it was a difficult year, the staff of of the school managed ^{it} very well. The financial cutbacks hit hard and it ^{is} hoped that there will be no further cutbacks in the coming year. Library stocks are severely depleted, and ^{reason} for this, there should be a series of fundraising activities to help raise money for books. Thank you to the staff for their hard work and I hope that the coming year will be successful.

The Head teacher. Thank you, Chair of Governors for your contribution to the school.

The meeting was closed at 9:00 pm.

Question no: 05 (Part B)

- 1) Nosegay : Flowers :: Team : Players
- 2) Olfactory : Nose :: Optic : Eye.
- 3) Swaddle : Envelope : Rattle : Shake.
- 4) Deter : Postpone :: Proffer : Infer
- 5) Rue : Regret :: Rule : Dominate

Date _____
Question no: 06

3) Break a leg:

She was told to break a leg right before her performance on stage.

4) Eager Beaver:

She was an all time favourite student of teacher due to her eager beaver qualities.

5) Hit the hay:

After a long tiring day, she was eager to hit the hay.

7) Apple of one's eye:

Being the only child of his parents, he was considered as the apple of their eyes.

6) Fall off the wagon:

He finally fell off the wagon due to return of addicted friends.

Question no:07

Every one is busy to grind his own ax

Everyone tries to ~~straighten~~ their own way, in today's chaotic times. No one cares for another person. No one has pure love nor intention in their hearts. ~~Moral values are facing a downfall.~~ We are not selfish towards humans but also with our country. Have we ever thought about this culminatively that once this country used to have celebration of love, now has an atmosphere of terrorism, but still not everything has changed. If we truly love Pakistan and look into our own selves, we can ~~erase~~ erase many of our weaknesses. We all our pillars of tomorrow. We should eradicate ^{difference of} Sectarianism, rich and poor lower and upper class. We will have to be united as one to make the future of this country bright. Pray that every individual of this country unites to worry for this country as ^{only} if Pakistan is alive then we are alive.