Neglect in Enhancing intellectual ability in our education system:

Quote not relevant.

Education is the most powerful weapon which can use to change the world (Nelson Mandela).

No relation of Hook with the topic. Attention The topic grabber is not about education. It is about neglect of intellectual ability especially in education system of Pakistan. Connector

This quote shows the importance of education for the development of any state. Education which provides the critical thinking to a person need to be addressed.

Intellectual ability which polishes the personality of an individual is possible by upgradation of education system. However, the education system of Pakistan lack enhancement in intellectual ability which directly affect the growth of an individual in every field of life. not talks, neglects - there is a big difference in 2.

list of outline

Various factors like lack of quality teachers, outdated curriculum which lack modern research.

unavailability of funds for research purpose, lack of professional counselling, peer pressure regarding marks and grades, and violation of merit system are responsible for lack of intellectual ability in our education system.

Does not address the neglect. You are writing hundreds of flaws of education system.

eg. Unavailability of funds indicates there are no funds, so it is a problem. Low allocation of funds indicate that there are funds, but there is neglect on part of govt.

These factors hamper the critical thinking among students which leads to decrease research ratios - unemployment and lack of trained people in country are the product of neglect of enhancing intellectual ability. This need to be addressed by upgradation of curriculum and fulfillment of merit criteria for academic as well as professional purpose. Proper training of teachers is necessary to ensure modern techniques. Keyword system for intellectual people should be introduced.
