

Q. NO. 2

Title: ~~Army: only disciplined institution~~
~~Divided Pakistan: unfit for revolution~~
~~in Pakistan~~

Pakistan is a multi ethnic society. All of which have their own culture and identity. owing to unique identity of their own, every province's people oppose the others. Similarly, not even the people of the same province are united or disciplined. They oppose each other on ethnicity, tribal, and social bases. Every one has its own identity which is opposed by the others. ~~Therefore,~~ Anatol Lieven opines that only Army is the institution which has single identity, and is united and disciplined. It is much strongly ⁵ united that ~~it~~ cannot be subdued easily. ~~Only power can~~ ~~subdue it~~ ~~morally~~ ~~or~~ ~~structurally~~ ~~disuniting~~ ~~the~~ ~~rank~~ ~~and~~ ~~file~~ ~~of~~ ~~army.~~ If army is disunited, the whole country will witness a civil war. Similarly, national level rebellion will occur which will grapple ~~the~~ ~~whole~~ ~~country.~~

Q. NO. 7

Translated paragraph

In such a time of selfishness everyone is engrossed in his own matters. Nobody cares of the others; Every heart is vacant of true love and affection; Moral values have went to dogs; and everyone has its own axe to grind, not only with people, but also with the country. Have we ever pondered about this unanimously that once here peace and tranquility prevailed, now it has become a bastion of terrorism. It is never too late than never. We can vanish

our fallacies by removing our individual faults and by loving our country.
We are the future builders. We should exterminate the racial, ethnic and superiority-based discriminations. We should unite for the prosperity of our country.
Let us pray that every individual
of this country may unite and think about the country. Because, ~~well~~ we prosper only when the country prosper.
