

English Essay

Topic : Online Education has Given More Opportunities than Challenges.

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: Though online education has both opportunities and challenges, but opportunities of the online education are more as compare to its challenges. As opportunities of the online education system cover vast areas and provide opportunity to each and every individual to become literate.

2. Online Education Opportunities are more than its Challenges

3. Online Education has given more Opportunities

a) Access of remote and countryside students to the quality education

b) Online education is cheaper than physical classroom education

c) Online education an opportunity for girls to become literate

d) Many job opportunities lie in online education

e) Opportunity for state to increase the number of its literate people.

4. Online Education has given more Challenges than Opportunities

a) Access of all to the education only not to the quality education.

b) Classroom education worths enough to be paid for as it is without distraction.

c) Girls have lost the one and only physical platform to groom themselves because of online education.

d) People became more lazy due to online jobs.

e) Through online education state can increase the number of degree holders only but not number of the true literates.

5. Opportunities of the Online Education are more than its Challenges

a) Access to classroom education is not possible for all students.

b) All the people cannot afford the fees of the institutes.

c) Variety of choices for girls to get education.

d) Online jobs required more skilled and active people.

e) State can reach each and every individual through online system.

6. Conclusion

Essay

"Seeking knowledge is an obligation upon every Muslim." (Hadith)

Islam is a universal deen and it is for the whole mankind. It gives right to education to each and every individual. But as the population of the world grows rapidly, access to education became a challenge to most of the people around the globe, specially for the masses of the developing countries. The online education system appeared as a ray of hope for the people having no access to the physical classroom education. Though online education has both opportunities and challenges, but opportunities of the online education are more as compare to its challenges. As opportunities of the online education system covers the vast areas and provides opportunity to each and every individual to become literate. Access to quality and good education for all the individuals around the globe including male, female and even to the masses of the countryside areas. Online education system is cheap and also less time consuming. As online education consumes less time, so, individuals can do job as well along with their studies and online education system provides job opportunities as well. Online education system provides best opportunity to any state to make its masses literate.