

Topic:

Online education has given more opportunities than challenges.

Outline:

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. How online education provides more opportunities to the students <sup>and</sup> teachers?

a. Provides flexibility to learners as per their own experience.

b. Develops different <sup>technological</sup> skills.

c. A time-saving opportunity.

d. Online assessments help in motivating the students

e. Helps in utilizing innovative ways of evaluation

4. Students and teachers face various challenges in online learning.

a. Internet connectivity issues in several areas.

b. Lack of interest in technological proficiencies.

c. Difficulties in time management.

d. Weak academic performers

e. Lack of well-trained teachers in educational institutes

5. Online education is more facilitating and less challenging.

a. Recorded lectures avoid failure.

b. Technological <sup>es</sup> like virtual instructions develop interests in the students.

- c. Professional work can easily be managed alongwith the digital learning.
- d. Well-designed lessons and assessments improves the students' performance.
- e. Quality institutions for professional learning produces qualified teachers.

6. Conclusion