

Essay ISB-08-47 Bushra

Online Education has given more opportunities than challenges

Outline

1- Introduction

Necessity of online education is increasing as it is more flexible and affordable than traditional education. It provides with a number of career advancement opportunities. Online education must be strategically implemented to make it more effective.

2- Crunch Paragraph

3- Why online education is needed

a) Necessary for economic growth and development

b) more flexible and affordable

c) provides more autonomy easy education for rural areas

d) In time of pandemic or social distancing

e) To meet the need of education, in time of social distancing

e) Provides cost effective education than traditional education

4. Opportunities provided from online education

a) Provides with a number of career advancement opportunities

b) Bridge the gap between public and private education

c) Come up with better opportunities to collaborate with classmates

d) Gives the tailored education to meet the need of each student

e) Multifaceted and impactful mode of instruction

5. How online education can be made more effective

a) Should be properly frameworked and strategically implemented

b) conscious efforts must be made to make it more effective

c) institutes must stay abreast with trends in online learning

d) Digital infrastructure must be developed

6. Conclusion