Title: "Martin Luther King's Dream of Equality and Unity"

Martin Luther King, in his speech, expressed his dream of a nation where people live.

According to their character, based on equality, no discrimination on the basis of color. He dreamed of a society which erased the divisions and reveals the glory of the Lord to all - To carve a stone of hope from the mountain of despair. This dream was hope-fully concluded by affirming that, united in purpose, the people would eventually be free.
