(PART-II)

Make a Preci's of the following passage:

Title: Dream of Martin Luther King
King: A Freedom Fighter

Martin Luther King addressed people that he had a dream that one day that nation "would rise and live with faith. ~~The~~ descendants of former slaves and their owners would sit together. There would be brotherhood between the descendants of former slaves and their owners as all men ~~are~~ were created equal.

Mississippi would be popular for its freedom and justice and his four children would not be judged by their characters instead of their skin colour. He had faith that everything would be fine. And with that faith they would be able to work, to pray, to struggle & do anything together with freedom, knowing that they would be free one day.
