

Part II

(Q3) Precis:

The author expressed his dream of equality for all creeds. He dreams that one day all men will be treated equally and the sons of former slaves and slave owners will be ~~equal~~ brothers. He dreams that may his children be judged by their character and not their skin color even in slave states of Mississippi. Author further explains his desire of seeing young black and white boys and girls hand and hand as siblings in Alabama. He dreams that may all humans may one day know the glory of God through equality and justice around them. In the end, the author hopes to ~~see a world~~ ^{go back to south} where everyone co-exists, in all matters of life, with dignity and respect.

Title: I have a dream.

(Q4)

- (a) ~~Not only Sir HAG but Sir AS al-~~
- (b) We watched the lambs gambol on the green s.
- (c) fresh flowers smell sweet
- (d) He availed this situation very intelligently.
- (e) Many girls were appeary in the examination.
- (a) Not only Sir HAG but also Sir AS supported the cause.
- (c) He ought not have spoken.

B:

- 1- for
- 2- for
- 3- to
- 4- about
- 5- with
- 6- about
- 7- to
- 8- about

Q5)

(iii) "~~March on~~", said the commander to the soldiers.
The commander told the soldiers to march on.

(iv) As it was his first fault, he entreated his masters respectfully.

(v) ~~I said~~ I asked the stranger if he came from America and how he felt in Pakistan.

(vi) "Come in time or I will turn you out", said the officer to the peep

(vii) He said that he must go to the dentist tomorrow as he has an appointment.

Q6)

(5) Hit the hay.

It's time to hit the hay, I am very tired.

(6) The coach exclaimed right before the match, "Break a leg!"

thick as thieves

8. The librarian and the book worm were thick as thieves.

6. Fall off the wagon:

It is easy to fall off the wagon if you start to procrastinate!

4. Heard it on the grapevine.

They both are getting married, I heard it on the grapevine.