Precis

It is dreamt that one day the nation will come up with its genuine idealism. The values of which are based on equality by rejection of discrimination based on wealth, colour, race, faith and gender. The ideals of brotherhood, justice and fairness will be supported. Moreover, the narrow distinction of geography will also be erased and everyone will have a level playing field for progress. The people will be able to witness blessing of their Lord and attain glory in their lives. This has been the hope and is so strong that virtue of peace and fraternity will prevail. Further, there will be cooperation, tolerance, resilience and struggle for the realization of ideals of liberty and equality.

Q no. 07. Translation

Ans.

The person who makes large progress is the one who takes a step ahead. No officer or system gives him progress, but the nature offers him it. We should have a belief that Allah Almighty is the guardian of our efforts. It should be our faith that the nature will also bless us. Those hardworks which are not paid by the people are surely blessed by Allah Almighty. This idea should ~~be~~ be believed by you as you believe in the existence of your body. Hazrat Sheikh Sa'di (R.A.) says, "When you beg, do not beg according to your position, but beg based on his greatness!" Possibly, my position can be of lower value, but the dignity of the giver ~~may~~ make me king. He has unlimited ways and reasons for blessing.
