PART-II

Question no. 2:

Answer:

Equality Should Be For All

The author dreams of a nation that embodies the true meaning of its creed, where all men are created equal. They hope that in Georgia, former slaves and owners will sit together, at the table of brotherhood, and Mississippi will transform into an oasis of freedom and justice. They all envision a nation where children are judged by their character, where black and white children can join hands as sisters and brothers. The author hopes that this faith will transform the nation's discords into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood, allowing for cooperation, prayer, struggle, and eventual freedom.

invented the weapon while he was still in the military.

(2)
Answer: The weapon was a revolutionary rifle. This is because it was relatively inexpensive to produce, short and light to carry, easy to use, and it boasted legendary reliability under harsh conditions.

(3)
Answer: The best inventions come during the time of crisis. The legendary weapon was produced during the second world war.

(4)
Answer: The user who carries the gun kills, not the gun.

(5)
Answer: Yes, the final words of Mikhail Kalashnikov console his conscience. He rightly said that guns do not kill, it is the user who kills.

Question no. 7:

Answer: The person who makes the most progress is the one who goes one step ahead. It is not given by officers or governments, it is given by nature. We should have faith that Allah Almighty is the protector of our hard work. We should have faith that nature will surely bless us. The work whose reward is not given by men, Allah Almighty gives its reward. We should have faith in it, like we have faith in our body. Hazrat Sheikh Saadi (R.A.) says "Never ask according to your worth, but ask according to His Glory." It is possible, my time may be short, but the Glory of the Giver may make me a king. He has countless ways and excuses to reward.
