

The American Dream

Martin, had a dream that his nation will rise and live the true meaning of equality. Moreover, he says that children in the state of Mississippi and Alabama, will not be judged by their colour and one day a white girl and a black boy will walk hand in hand in the streets of these states. Furthermore, he says when every valley shall be engulfed, every hill shall be exalted the glory of God shall be revealed regardless of skin colour. He ends his speech by saying that his faith about equality and brotherhood will definitely prevail and his nation will rise.

Q3

(1) Yes. The invention of weapon can only be attributed to Mikhail Kalashnikov. This is mainly due to it was his sole resolve to develop a better, when he ~~saw~~ saw combat advantage by Germany's superior firearms.

(2) There are certain features that made the weapon a revolutionary rifle. Chiefly among that is it was inexpensive, short and light to carry, and easy to use. Not only that but its reliability under harsh conditions ranging from ~~wet~~ waterlogged jungles to Middle Eastern sandstorms in both extreme cold and heat. The weapon quickly spread around the world.

(3) The best invention come during the time of crisis is some like necessities are the mother of inventions. When German invaded Russia they overwhelmed Russians with high speed and superiority in firearms. It was the time of crisis many Russians felt if they need to become super power they shall must develop superior weapon to better and combat.

(4) It is on who carries them kills.
As ~~gun~~ soldiers also have guns and a ~~terror~~ terrorist also has a gun but one carries to defend and other carry to kill respectively. Hence, it is one who carries them kills.

(5) It would be wrong to say Mikhail Kalashnikov's last words console his conscience. This is due to his last words show no regrets despite interviewer's question on his rifle that killed thousands of humans. In my opinion, even when Mikhail Kalashnikov didn't create rifles were these people not dying? The answer is yes, therefore, Mikhail showing no regret was absolutely logical.
