Q.No. 3
Comprehension - Passage

Answer 1:-

Yes, the invention of weapon can be attributed to Mikhail Kalashnikov. As he invented the weapon in 20th century, during 2nd world war. He designed and develop Kalashnikov in order to combat the superior firearms of Germany.

Answer 2:-

The weapon becomes a revolutionary rifle because of its certain characteristics and usage in far flung areas of Vietnam, Afghanistan, Colombia and Mozambique. Along with its inexpensive production cost and least market competitors.

Answer 3:-

Kalashnikov is the best invention in time of crisis because it was invented during world war second. Its inexpensive manufacturing cost and easy mobility was blessing in disguise for military soldiers and worn torn nations.

Answer 4:-

According to the information given in passage, it is actually the carrier of gun who kills, as mentioned that every weapon has one weakness that is its user. So, guns can work only when humans want to.

Answer 5:

The last words of Mikhail Kalashnikov depicts that he used to console his invention by putting all blame on governance and political leadership. He believed that it is responsibility of state leaders to avert the threat of conflict. It shows that weapon alone are not the only source of conflicts.

Q No 7: TRANSLATION

The individual who move one step forward has more chances to grow. He is not promoted by authority or system. but by the will of nature he grows. It should be our belief that our hardwork is protected and will be rewarded by God. The efforts which are not rewarded by world are ultimately rewarded by God. one should have firm believe on this, as like one has on his existence. Sheikh Ahmed Saadi said, "Whenever you are seeking for anything do not pray according to your personal capacity instead one need to keep in mind the prestige of Allah. It is possible, seeker's seeking is too small in comparison to the prestige of giver. Who can make person a King. As Allah has unlimited ways to bless someone.
