

Precis Title: Vision of Brotherhood and Togetherness

Precis: I have a dream that this motherland will stand up and realize the actual meaning of its faith - All men are made equal is the undeniable truth - In my vision the sons of bondmen & slave masters will become brothers in state of Georgia. In Mississippi, the tyranny will be converted into liberty & fairness and children's character will determine their attributes and not their skin complexion. I visualize that one day little dark boys and girls will become Biblings with white girls and boys in Alabama. I hope, that people will see mountains made low and contorted place made straight. Desperation will be changed to joy with faith. This faith will enable our country to be free to become brothers and stand united in work, prayer, struggle and freedom.

Comprehension

- (1) The invention of AK-47 cannot only be attributed to Mikhail Kalashnikov because in 1941 when <sup>he</sup> was wounded the German had better weapons which inspired him to build a better weapon. It took him six years to build but in that period others have better designs. So this invention can also be attributed to German and Russians better designs which inspired Kalashnikov to develop AK-47.
- (2) Automat Kalashnikov-47 had a lot of advantages over other weapons and inexpensive production is one of them. It was short, lightweight, ease of usage and little rebound. It was reliable in extreme hot and cold conditions and areas like waterlogged jungles and Middle Eastern sandstorms.
- (3) Yes it is true that the crisis period reveals the ingenuity of a person. It is stated that necessity is the mother of invention. In this context, the USSR was being invaded by Germany in 1941 with its superior military power during Second world war. Kalashnikov, a tank mechanic wounded in the war took it upon himself to apply his expertise to develop a legendary invention i.e. AK-47 to defend his country from any further invasion attempts.

(4) According to Kalashnikov, it is not the guns that kill but rather the politicians who don't have the right mindset to resolve the differences with peaceful agreements and as a result they resort to violence that kills people.

(5) In my opinion, Kalashnikov's conscience was consoled already because he insisted that the weapon was built for defensive purposes and not offensive. In 2007 and all his life he was saddled with guilt that his weapon killed numerous people but he always rebuffed those attempts by maintaining that politicians are to blame for killings and his weapon was for defensive usage.

Q. 7 Translation

The person who walks one step ahead get more success. The officers or the system don't give him success, rather the nature grants him success. It should be our faith that the protector of our hard work is Allah - It should be our belief that the nature will also reward us. The hard work which is not rewarded by men will definitely be rewarded by Allah. You should have the same belief as you have belief on the existence of your body. Hazrat Sheikh Sadi said, "If you ask don't ask according to your status, but ask according to the respect of Him." It is impossible that my status is too low, but the one who gives, his reputation can make me a King. He has a lot of excuses and methods to reward you.
