Q. No. 7

Translation

Progress comes to the person who remains a step ahead. Neither officer nor system elevates his rank but nature does. We should have a faith that Allah (swt) is the only custodian of our endeavours. We should have a faith that nature will definitely reward us. Allah will surely reward us for those struggles that are unrewarded by the people. Your faith on this thing must be as same as you have faith in existence of your body. Sheikh Sadi says that ~~(do not as)~~ whenever you want to get something by praying to Allah, do not limit to your own standard but think how much He can give. However, it is possible that the receiver may not have as such status as the status of the giver, that ultimately can make one king. He has countless ways to reward.
