Title: Dream of Martin Luther King for Freedom

Martin Luther in his poem "I have a dream" wishes that one day all black and white people will become brothers without any discrimination of creed and colour. Slaves and free men will be equal. In Mississippi, there will be waves of freedom and justice instead of oppression. All people will be examined on merit. In Alabama, racism will come to an end and all young boys and girls will become brothers and sisters. He wished that all the things which are present in nature will favour equality. He is optimistic in eradicating all sadness and promotes good will and hope. He thought that by doing so they will be united and experience all sentiments together. One day they will get freedom.

Translation for

A person makes more progress who walks one step forward. The officer or system do not give him promotion, the nature promotes him. We should have faith that Allah Almighty is the guardian of our hard works. We should believe that nature will bless us. The hard works which are not regarded by the people, will be regarded by Allah Almighty. You should have a firm faith in this like you believe in the existence of your body. Hazrat Shaikh Saadi said "Ask to Allah Almighty not according to your desires but according to the grace of Him". It is possible that my desires may be less but the Benevolence of giving God made me a King. He has numerous ways of blessing.
