

Mock 4

Question: 2

Nation and Freedom

The author had a belief that a true nation will have freedom. As all men are equally created, so society must be free of class struggle. This develops a brotherhood in society.

He hoped that oppressed state will be free one day.

He believed that people would be judged on their character.

As furthermore, he hoped that state of Alabama would be free of racism. This was all what he hoped. However,

he believed that faith is needed to develop unity

among people. Since, without any effort, there will be no brotherhood. The discord among people remains same. Since, for achieving ~~an~~ freedom, faith is necessary.

Question: 3

Question: 1

The invention of the weapon be attributed only to Mikhail Kalashnikov. He invented the weapon in 20th century. He ^{while was} still being in Soviet military, he made several designs of AK-47 but, he lost out to his competitors. later, in 1947, he made Automat Kalashnikova. It was his greatest invention. that made it, as a revolutionary weapon.

Question: 2

A weapon of AK-47, was a revolutionary rifle. As it was inexpensive, lighter in weight and easily accessible which made it reliable to use in harsh conditions. It spreads all around the world from waterlogged jungles to Middle Eastern sandstorms. It was a revolutionary rifle especially in Afghanistan, Vietnam, Columbia and Mozambique. It killed maximum people since its invention, used by mainly terrorists.

Question: 3

The ~~fir~~ best inventions come during the time of crisis, as Mikhail Kalashnikov was a tank mechanic in USSR military. He ~~get~~^{was} wounded when Germany invaded USSR in 1941. Having first seen the combat advantage by Germany's superior firearms he resolved to develop a better weapon. It was the time of crisis for USSR when Germany invaded and it donot have acessible and light weapons to use.

Therefore, it (AK-47) was invented during time of crisis.

Question: 4

According to the given passage, Guns are not the killers but their users are the killers. Since, he developed the weapon for defense and it was politicians fault that they failed to come to an agreement and resort to violence. It is well-known that every weapon has a weakness and that is his use. However, it is mostly used by terrorists or but still it is them, you used, since the aim of kalashnikov was the defence.

(2)

Question: 5

The last words of Mikhail Kalashnikov consoles his conscience to some extent.

As, though his weapon a vast number of killings and injuries were inflicted.

and his insistence for the usage for defence donot satisfies his conscience,

As he must have done something that inappropriate usage of his weapon could not take place. Moreover, he also, refer to the use of weapon, as weakness of weapon, that may satisfies his conscience.

but again it was him, who invented the kalashnikov and he must must ensure the use of weapon rightfully and in correct hands.

Question: 4
part . a

h) Many girls are appearing in examination.

c) He belongs to the guild of Carpenter.

f) He avails this situation
intelligently.

e) Fresh flower smells sweetly.

a) Not only Sir Hassan Ali Gondal,
but also Sir Ali Shahab
supported this cause.

Question 4 (B) :

part - B

- 2) The course encourages students to think critically ~~on~~ development.
- 1) In addition to the formal contract time required ~~in~~ each course students will need to allocate non-contract time.
- 4) The course aims to help people make sound choice ~~on~~ health.
- 3) The relative proportion of contract and non-contract time may vary from course ~~to~~ course.
- 8) Students will learn ~~from~~ such key concepts as the scientific method.

Question: 5

- i) Sir Majid told to Sir Ali that he make difficult mock papers.
- vii) He told, that he shall go to dentist next day as he had an appointment.
- iii) The Commander commanded the soldiers for March.
- viii) They exclaimed with joy for Imran's magnificent shot.
- (iv) He begs pardon from his master ^{by treating his master respectfully} as it was his first fault.

Question: 6

8) Thick as thieves

Despite the ^{several} scoldings from his parents, he did not pay attention towards his studies ^{and} acting as thick as thieves.

3) Break a leg

The current inflation in Pakistan has break a leg of the economy of Pakistan.

5) Hit the hay

Despite being a graduate, one can not score in CSS exams as it is not as easy as hitting the hay.

1) grasping at straws

~~for~~ One must work hard to achieve success, otherwise grasping at straws is of ~~is~~ no use.

2) in dire straits

Although in dire straits, he still remains motivated and positive.

Question: 7

One could only progress if he steps ahead. The officers or system could not award progress rather it was a ^{Omnipotence} nature that will award progress. It must be our faith that our hardwork will be regulated by Allah. One must have faith that Omnipotence will give award. Such hardwork which was not paid by people, would be paid off by Allah. This faith need to be believed as belief on the body soul. As Hazrat Sheikh Sa'adi stated that never beg for whenever asked, never consider the

you standard but consider his magnificance. It ~~may~~^{can} be possible that my standard
are low but, the magnificance of God, would make his as king. He various ways
and excuses of blessings.

4:50