

Precis and Composition 1: 8/1

Q#2) Preci.

Martin Luther King opened up about his dream. He told the World that he had a dream where USA as a nation would incline to the high expectations of religion. Such inclined nation would believe in equality, where children of slaves and slave-owners would be equal. This nation would have values of freedom and justice. There people would be judged by character and not skin. This nation would witness black and white harmony under political umbrella. The rough patches in the society would be mowed to straight path by the glory of Lord. This faith forcees a silver lining where a nation full of hatred would metamorphisize into a symphony of brotherhood.

Q#7) Translation

Try to attempt in idiomatic and proverbial manner.

The one who is one step ahead tends to thrive more. Such person becomes successful by the dint of nature and not by an officer or a system. One should have strong faith that Allah would repay all his/her hardwork. One should also believe that nature would award them. God Almighty acknowledges the efforts which are not acknowledged by mortals. The belief in this faith must be as strong as the existence of a person's mind and body. Hazrat Sheikh Sadi said

"If you ask, ask him according to his glory and not yours!" It is possible that by his blessings a person with meagre status could turn into a king. He has many ways of forgiveness and bestow his blessings upon anyone.

pray according to his stature
