A friend walks in when everyone else walks out. This is a very famous proverb. It's the renowned American writer, Walter Winchell, once said, "a real friend is one who walks in when the rest of the world walks out." This quote perfectly captures the essence of a true friendship; it is about being there for each other through thick and thin, no matter what. In life, we all go through tough times, and it is during these moments that we need our friends the most. It is easy to be there for someone when things are going well, but true friends are a specific kind of person to stick around when the going gets tough. However, it is crucial
