

"I Have a Dream"

Martin Luther King Jr's in his speech "I have a dream" envisions a future where all people are treated equally, regardless of their race. He dreams of a world where former slaves and slave owners can sit together, and where every state can be transformed into a place of freedom and justice. King's vision includes a future where children are judged by their character, not their skin color, and where black and white children can join hands as sisters and brothers. King's message is one of hope and unity, inspiring people to work together towards a better future for all. He concludes his speech with the message of hope and faith. He speaks of his hope and faith that he will take back to South, a faith that allow people to turn their despise into hope.

Do not go for first and second person pronoun I you is not allowed in preci

You need to come up with precise sentences

You have not follow the rules

Q) Can the invention of the weapon be attributed only to Mikhail Kalashnikov?

Ans. Mikhail Kalashnikov was a tank mechanic in Soviet military during second world war in 20th century he invented the weapon which he gave the name Automatic Kalashnikov 47, which is commonly known as AK-47. But the invention of the weapon cannot be attributed solely to Mikhail Kalashnikov. While Kalashnikov is credited with inventing the AK-47 assault rifle the development of weapons has been ongoing process throughout human history, with many people and cultures contributing to this process.

Too long
Make it to 4-5 lines

Q) What really made the weapon a revolutionary weapon?

Ans. There are several factors that contributed to the AK-47's status as a revolutionary weapon. One of the most important factors was its reliability. This made it a popular choice among soldiers and guerrilla fighters around the world. Another is its simplicity. It was easy to use and easy to manufacture.

Finally, the design of AK-47 was highly adaptable, which made it a really revolutionary weapon.

Q) The best invention come ?

Ans. Kalashnikov experience during the war was a crises situation, and it was a crises that inspired him to invent the AK-47. Kalashnikov's belief that the best inventions come during times of crises is based on the idea that necessity is the mother of invention.

Q) What kill? ?

Ans. As Kalashnikov has credited to invent the great weapon AK-47. But the weapon has counted maximum kills since its invention. He made the weapon to strengthen his army during the war but after the war AK-47 was widely used by terrorists around the world. So who carry guns are responsible for killing. The person who pulled the trigger who is responsible for the death, not the gun itself.

Q) His last word...?

Ans. Yes, his last words consoled his conscience. His words do suggest that he believed that politicians and other leaders bear some responsibility for the violence that occurs in the world. His last words also suggested that the root cause of violence is not the weapons themselves, but the politicians and social factors that lead to conflict and aggression.

Q) Correct the following

a) The cause was supported by both Sir Hassan Ali Gondal and Sir Ali Shahab

b) We watched the lambs grazing on the green.

d) He ought not to speak

e) Fresh flowers smell sweet

g) The black vermin are an odious creature.

Q. Fill in the blanks.

3. about

4. about

5. for

7. to

6. about

Q. Translation:

A person makes more progress who takes a step forward he is not promoted by officers or system, but by nature it is to have our faith develops. Our faith should be that Allah Almighty is the protector of our efforts. Nature will surely bless us. Those labors who rewards are not met by servants, these he definitely gives. You should have faith in it like you have faith in your body. God says that ~~believe~~ ~~on~~ ~~existence~~ believe on existence. Hazrat sheikh ~~and~~ said that "Whenever you ask, never ask according to your need, but ask according to his glory, it is possible that my need is very short but the glory of giver makes me a king. He has countless ways to reward and there are excuses."

Use Idiomatic expressions

Q. Make Sentence.

a. Hit the hay

It's late after midnight so it is time I hit the hay.

b. Grasping at straws

We searched all the backup tapes, trying to find the missing files, but we knew we were grasping at straws

c. Breaking a leg

~~When~~ Before I went up on stage my mom advised me to break a leg.

d. Damp squib

This amount of power was a damp squib

e. Thick as thieves

Two men became thick as thieves, opening a cafe and committing crimes together.

(v) Change narration:

ii. The beggar asked ...

• The beggar said to the rich lady, "Will you not pity the sufferings of an old and miserable man and help me with rupee or two?"

iii. Commander said ...

• The commander ordered soldiers to march on

iv. He entreated ...

• He said, "Please pardon me, it is my first fault."

vi. The officer ...

• The officer said to the man, "Come in time otherwise you will be turned out."

viii. They said Bravo, ...

• They applauded Imran for a shot.