Q NO# 03

① Information provided in the text portrays that the invention of the weapon be attributed only to Mikhail Kalashnikov. He invented revolutionised the world of weapons due to its reliability, inexorability, short and light to carry and easy to use. So, it can be said that only the striving of the Kalashnikov made it possible to come up with AK-47.

Begin from question statement

② Reliability, light weight, comparative easiness of AK-47 and easy to carry were one of the revolutionising attributes of the weapon. Furthermore its use in scaring hotness or harsh coldness, in interlogged jungles to sandstorm of middle East were yet other revolutionised qualities of the weapon AK-47.

③ As per the text Germans already were at upperhand in weapons, but invention of the weapon AK-47 changed the course of war due to its quantity of ubiquitous in terms of mechanization of weapons. Therefore, it will not be wrong if it is called as the best inventions came during the time of crisis. AK-47 is one of the evident proof of it.
