Title :

King Martin hoped to see his nation live up to the standard of their Creed. Equality would become the norm. In Georgia Brotherhood will be so prevalent that children of slaves and masters would play together. Mississippi will come out of oppression and witness true freedom and justice. King's four children would be judged by character not by colour. In Alabama racism will end. There will be peace everywhere. One day despair will turn into hope. Conflicts will turn into brotherhood. Unity for every cause and liberation will be pursued.

Q. 7

Translation

An individual who is proactive succeeds. He is not awarded with success by officers or the systems but by nature. It should be our faith that Allah is the protector of our hard work. Our belief should be that the nature will reward us. Those efforts that are not rewarded by people, are rewarded by Allah Ta'ala. On this matter you should be having a firm belief as you have firm belief on the existence of your body. Hazrat Shaikh Saadi says whenever you consider the immense divine power not your level. It is possible that may be I have a very low element but I would be blessed like a King.
