Attention grabber does not relate to the topic

When we talk about Education, ~~one~~ The Things come into mind are infrastructure, classrooms, social interaction of students and a building. But when we think about online education, an un-orthodox way of teaching comes with mere a laptop and a network connection. Online education has given more opportunities than challenges. Opportunities like accessibility and flexibility, Cost-effective, ^{ness} skill development in Digital age, and personalised learning experience are common.

Don't just enlist the opportunities. Make sentences with 2-3 in each sentence

Unstructured and incomplete introduction. No thesis statement, no proper reflection of the outline.

Don't write quotes separately. They need to be related to either the context of the whole essay or the point you are trying to prove. In both cases it will be incorporated within the paragraph

According to Abraham Lincoln;

“ Education is not to teach people what they do not know, Education is to teach people to behave as they do not behave.”

Not relevant

In the digital and globalized world, people want to get education without any restrictions of time, place and social standards. Before corona virus pandemic, this digital learning revolution was in its starting phase. Entirely irrelevant to the topic

After COVID-19 hit the planet, there was a strong need generated due to its contagious nature. Everybody had to be in Quarantine or in social Isolation.

Then, a strong need was felt in the field of education ~~of~~ to teach students while putting them in social Isolation. In the result, the total orthodox way of learning was shifted to an innovative way of teaching. For Instance, Zoom classes are arranged now for distant students and they can now learn at the ease of time and place.

Irrelevant and repetitive

Students or learners use different sources for online learning available to them.

Certain reliable sources are available online, such as, Coursera, Zoom, Harvard online learning, and skill-share etc. For Instance, students use zoom app for live online lectures as it is more reliable for fast, safe and secure connection. It depends on a student that which app fulfills his or her needs.

The answer to what is the best time to get online education is that there is no fixed time to get digital education. One can easily get access to the source and start learning anytime. Online Education gives an individual, a chronological flexibility. ~~Everybody can~~ For Instance, An Individual in every any corner of world can get education online without any physical presence and any time restrictions. He can learn Independently without being suppressed by any external force.

Will cause repetition is the actual arguments

Online education has given ^{certain} opportunities. One can easily have flexibility and accessibility every time. Time management is a most challenging task for every student. But online learning has minimised such challenges and made a man independent to get access anytime without any time and place restrictions. For Instance, Students who are from backward areas and under-developed villages can easily get access to e-learning without spending more money in in hostel expenditures and universities. In a developing country like Pakistan, According to United Nations Women.org, Gender Inequality is at its worst case.

So, there online education plays a pivotal role in strengthening women and providing education to women while staying at home. This way, women stay safe from harassment and bullying etc.

For Instance, There are many cases of women in Pakistan who have taken advantage of online learning.

Online learning is cost effective. The reason is that, in physical education, students from other cities come to metro cities universities, spending high fares and hostel rents. Away from home, that is very difficult especially for girls. Besides, They students have to pay tuition fee.

Contrarily, Online learning is much cost-effective than orthodox way of learning. For Instance, 17 &
