Title: Martin Luther King Junior:
I Have a Dream:

cannot use first person pronoun

Martin Luther King Junior had a dream that the American nation would one day realize their real independence: a united nation.

That day, Americans would have overcome their racial <sup>discrimination</sup> in favour of equality for all. He added that even the steadfast racists of Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama would come to agree on 'universal human equality' and embrace their fellow Black nationals as brothers.

Question no 3

The invention of the weapon cannot solely be attributed to Mikhail Kalashnikov, on two grounds. First, the second half of the 19th Century and the first half of the 20th Century had seen a revolution in fire arms. They enemies would take lives of millions of Russians with those weapons. Kalashnikov, thus, wanted to defend his nation against those superior fire-arms. Second, Kalashnikov worked for the Russian army and invented the weapon <sup>with</sup> all their support. Later, he was regarded a national hero too for the national pride.

(2) The weapon became a revolutionary rifle because it was or has been globally used in revolutionary struggles. It has permanently become linked to the freedom movements of states like Afghanistan, Columbia and Vietnam. Moreover, because it was durable, light, and effective, the weapon earned a worldwide recognition.

(3) Russia had been attacked by the powerful forces of Germany. This cost the earlier heavily in economic and military senses. In addition, Kalashnikov himself was part of the bloody World War II. As a result, he was resolute in his goal to invent a weapon which would ensure his nation's security against the enemy.

4) It is killed by the one who carries the gun rather than the gun itself. This is because the use of a weapon roughly depends on the ambition of its user. And, the ambition may either be the defence <sup>or</sup> the offense. Kalashnikov had invented his weapon for defensive purposes.

The last words of Kalashnikov do relieve him from the guilt of <sup>the</sup> killings with ~~the~~ <sup>his</sup> weapon. First, the fact that his weapon was not the only fire-arm in use around the world justifies its defensive purpose. Second, moral responsibility rests on the user of the weapon not the inventor because a weapon may secure the Lives of many more humans as well.

Question no 7

The man who always remains ahead of others progresses

indeed. He is not promoted by his seniors or the system but by divine nature. He is so faithful that Allah protects our efforts. We should also be faithful that the divine nature reward us for sure. This is because the efforts which go unrewarded or the humans end are rewarded by Allah. You should be faithful of this fact as firmly as you are of your existence. Hazrat Sheikh Saadi says, "Whenever you pray for something, do not pray as per your ~~standards~~ level but as per the standards of the Lord." It is all possible that the level of reward is very low, but the standard of the giver <sup>would</sup> makes me king, for He has unimaginable ways and means of rewarding.
