The American ~~Dream~~

Martin, had a dream that his nation will rise and live the true meaning of equality. Moreover, he says that children in the state of Mississippi and Alabama, will not be judged by their colour and one day a white girl and a black boy will walk hand in hand in the streets of these states. Furthermore, he says when every valley shall be engulfed, every hill shall be exalted, the glory of God shall be revealed regardless of skin colour. He ends his speech by saying that his faith about equality and brotherhood will definitely prevail and his nation will rise.
