One who walks a step ahead, progress the most. It is not the officer or institution that gives him progression but it is the divine that gives him progression. We should have belief that Allah is the protector of our efforts. We should have belief that Allah will definitely bless us. Those efforts which are not rewarded by humans are rewarded by Allah himself. We should have firm belief on this just live we believe in the existence of our body. Hazrat Sheikh Saad said "Whenever you ask don't ask according to your position, but ask according to his glory." It is possible that my position shall be small, but His glory can make me a king. He has countless ways to ways and excuses to bless someone.
