Question #7

Translation about some books It is often said that the best books changed the world. The scholars select these books according to their will and how and shine, but where the books can change the world, there are some books that led the world and stand responsible for its backwardness. In any society, it can be estimated from the publicity of the books that whether these books can change the world or hold fast it to the old hat of customs. From this point of view, if we take stock of the books published in Pakistan, we can see that these books are promoting the religionism, the emotions of sectarianism and unnecessary national pride and offering the thoughts of people. The expression of this mentality can be seen in today's Pakistan society.
